

ATTRACTIONS

Rideau Canal

Rideau Canal is 202 km long. It connects the Ottawa River (Ottawa) to Lake Ontario (Kingston) . It opened in 1832, and is the oldest operated canal system in North America. In 2007 it was registered as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Omega Park

The Park is a zoo in which visitors ride by car while animals stay in the wild: bison, elk, deer, racoon, wild boars, beaver, wolf, bear...

Château Montebello

Built in 1930 on the Ottawa River, the hotel is made of red cedar, has three floors and 6 wings of rooms around a hexagonal central fireplace.
